Two days ago my friend bought a new bag. She was absolutely happy; should you see her at that moment. I asked her: «How much does it cost?». Alla was shining: «Just 2 000 rubles. That's nothing. It cost about 100 000 rubles before the sales». «Stop, but if it initially cost 200 000, would you buy it?». «Of course not! It is too expensive!» – answered Alla. The end.
